

Employer of Legislative Liaison

Annual Report for November 1, 2010 through October 31, 2011
(Due not later than November 30, 2011)

REPORTING REQUIREMENT: Under IC 5-14-7-4, each employer of a legislative liaison is required to file annually with the Indiana Lobby Registration Commission a single, aggregate report for lobbying activities by each of the employer's legislative liaisons. Subject to the exceptions noted below, the report is to state expenditures for entertainment, including meals and drinks, or gifts that benefit a specific legislative person and that:

- (1) total $50 or more in one day or more than $250 during the reporting year; and
- (2) would be reportable to the Commission under IC 2-7 if made by a registered lobbyist.

If the employer of a legislative liaison has no reportable expenditures for entertainment or gifts, the employer is required to report that fact to the Commission.

EXCEPTIONS TO REPORTING REQUIREMENT:

The employer of a legislative liaison is not to report expenditure for any of the following:

- (1) Items provided under a statute or from an agency for redistribution to constituents.
- (2) Items provided during the performance of official duties by a legislative person, including the legislative person's service as a member of, or participant in, any of the following:
 - (A) The legislative council.
 - (B) The budget committee.
 - (C) A standing or other committee established by the rules of the House of Representatives or the senate.
 - (D) A study committee established by statute or by the legislative council.
 - (E) A statutory board or commission.
- (3) A scholarship, student employment, or other financial aid granted to a legislative person for attendance at a state educational institution.
- (4) Expenditures relating to an economic development effort, function, or event by an agency, including those hosted by the Indiana economic development corporation.
